The world is full of beautiful reasons to fight avoidable blindness:

Over three-quarters of blindness in the developing world can be treated, or even prevented. That's why Operation Eyesight, a Canadian non-profit organization, has been able to help over 35 million people to see by supporting the efforts of eye doctors, educators and others in South Asia and Africa, Together, through surgeries, outrooch clinics, treatment programs and more, we're curbing the spread of eye discose and blindness. But more people need care every day and we need your support. A donation from you will change how someone sees the world around them. See how you can help by visiting operationevesight ca.
